Jewish Community Foundation of San Diego
Welcomes Three New Board Members and Promotes Jeremy Pearl to Senior Vice President and CFO

August 13, 2015 – San Diego – The Jewish Community Foundation of San Diego Board of Directors is pleased to announce the appointments of Bobbie Gilbert, Brian Tauber and Jerry Turk. The new board members are all widely respected in the business community and have distinguished themselves as leaders in the nonprofit sector. Their three-year terms began July 1, 2015.

“We are grateful to have these talented, experienced community leaders join the board,” said Jane Scher, Foundation Board Chair. “They reflect our commitment to prudent governance and trusted service to the community.”

Bobbie Gilbert

Bobbie Gilbert is an active member of the community currently serving on the boards of Jewish Community Foundation and is past chair of the National Conflict Resolution Center (NCRC). She previously served on the board of Planned Parenthood of the Pacific Southwest and was a member of the Bio-ethics committee of Kaiser Hospital and Women Give San Diego. She is currently very active with the ArtPower program at UCSD.

Bobbie is a retired Marriage and Family Therapist. She also serves as the Foundation’s Philanthropy Committee Co-Chair.

Brian Tauber

Brian has always been involved in various aspects of community and public service. He currently chairs the Jewish Federation of San Diego County Board. He previously served on the Foundation Board from 2006-2011.

Brian has been the Chief Executive Officer and President of CPP Global since 2001. He also serves as the President and CEO of C Enterprises, L.P.

Brian Tauber earned his MBA and Law degrees from the University of Michigan in 1992. After graduation, he served as an assistant to Detroit Mayor Dennis W. Archer.

Jerry Turk

Jerry Turk was previously a board member of the Jewish Community Foundation from 2005-2011. His extensive involvement with the Foundation includes currently serving as chair of the Search Committee to find a new CEO and previously serving as chair of the Strategies and Finance Committees, the Revenue Task Force, a member of the Executive Committee and the Leadership Council.

Jerry has served on the Jewish Federation of San Diego County board, the Seacrest Village Executive Committee and the Congregation Beth El and Jewish Family Service Foundations' boards.

He conceived, developed and managed the Pala Casino Spa and Resort in northern San Diego County. Jerry is both an attorney and CPA.

Jeremy Pearl

Jeremy Pearl has been the CFO at the Foundation since 2005. He was recently promoted to Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer. In this position Jeremy is responsible for fiscal oversight of the Foundation including finance and operations, investments, human resources and information systems.

He also regularly works with the professional community and donors in charitable gift planning.

Jeremy's extensive career has focused on tax, estate and financial planning. Originally from London, England, he received his Bachelor of Arts from the University of Wales and, after immigrating to the United States in 1986, received his Juris Doctorate and Master of Laws in Taxation from the University of San Diego.

About The Foundation
