Charlene Seidle Named Jewish Community Foundation Associate Director

The Jewish Community Foundation recently announced the promotion of Charlene Seidle to the position of Associate Director

Charlene has served on the staff of the Foundation since 1997 when she joined as an intern. Over the years, she has held increasingly responsible positions including Director of Donor Services. In her new capacity, Charlene will continue to build strong partnerships with donors and organizations to build a strong, vibrant community. She will also focus on positioning the Foundation as a key community resource accessible to all.

“The Foundation can credit much of our success to Charlene. She brings so much talent and community spirit to her role,” stated Marjory Kaplan, Foundation Executive Director.

Charlene graduated with honors from the University of California, San Diego in 1999 with a Bachelor’s Degree in Political Science and Writing. She attended the San Diego Jewish Academy, Soille San Diego Hebrew Day School and La Jolla High School.

Andrew Viterbi, President of the Foundation, summed up Charlene’s contributions. “She makes everyone feel welcome while providing outstanding service. Her work has increased the Foundation’s efforts in many areas including Israel and the local community.”

Since 1967, the Jewish Community Foundation has partnered with donors and community organizations in achieving their philanthropic goals. In addition, the Foundation works to increase current and future support for a vibrant and secure Jewish community in San Diego, Israel and around the world. During fiscal year 2003/2004, the Jewish Community Foundation distributed more than $53 million in 3,000 separate grants to 700 different charitable organizations.
