

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release: March 28, 2006

Contact: Marissa Garfield
858-279-2740
marissa@jcfsandiego.org

Jewish Community Foundation Says Thank You at the Symphony

On Saturday, March 18,th the Jewish Community Foundation (JCF) welcomed Board and Committee members, the Estate and Tax Planning Council, Leadership Council and other friends to An Evening at the Symphony at Copley Symphony Hall. The event was a special thank you for the continued involvement and efforts of the JCF's volunteers and a celebration of the relationship between the JCF and the San Diego Symphony. Marjory Kaplan and Murray Galinson represent the JCF on the San Diego Symphony Foundation Board, and the Symphony Foundation holds part of its endowment at the JCF.

After the concert, more than 100 guests attended a dessert reception with Music Director and Conductor Jahja Ling, and guest violinist Min Lee. The event was underwritten by law firm DLA Piper Rudnick Gray Cary through partner Ellen Whelan, Chair of the JCF's Estate and Tax Planning Council.

"The Jewish Community Foundation is grateful to our many volunteers who devote thousands of hours each year to ensure that our community thrives for both current and future generations," said CEO Marjory Kaplan.

For more information, please contact the Jewish Community Foundation at 858.279.2740 or www.jcfsandiego.org.

About the Jewish Community Foundation

Since 1967, the Jewish Community Foundation has been at the forefront of charitable giving in San Diego. The Foundation has partnered with individuals, families and community organizations to help them achieve their philanthropic goals and to increase current and future support for a vibrant and secure Jewish community in San Diego, Israel and around the world. During fiscal year 2004/2005, the Jewish Community Foundation distributed almost $46 million in 3,600 separate grants to 700 different charitable organizations.

###