JEWISH COMMUNITY FOUNDATION CELEBRATION
— Five hundred of San Diego's philanthropic leaders recently celebrated the 40th anniversary of the Jewish Community Foundation, San Diego's largest grant maker and oldest community foundation. At the elegant, high-energy evening at the San Diego Museum of Man, the Foundation honored 40 years of charitable giving to the San Diego community and thanked those who give.

The celebration brought together philanthropists with the nonprofit agencies, organizations and religious institutions — both Jewish and secular — that deliver services to San Diegans. Mayor Jerry Sanders was among the dignitaries in attendance.
