

SDJJ | community

JEWISH COMMUNITY FOUNDATION TURNS 40

On May 31, 500 leaders in San Diego celebrated the 40th anniversary of the Jewish Community Foundation. The event was held at the Museum of Man, and it brought together philanthropists with the non-profit agencies, organizations, and religious institutions that give services to San Diegans. Celebrants also had a chance to view the Museum of Man's new exhibit, "Journey to the Copper Age." The JCF is proud of their accomplishments and hopes to move forward through meaningful partnerships with community organizations for many more years to come.

anniversaries...

☆ The Jewish Community Foundation celebrated its 40th anniversary May 31 at The San Diego Museum of Man with 500 people attending a lovely evening event. There were hors d'oeuvres, desserts, tours of Journey to the Copper Age, and a brief program. One of our favorite desserts were freshly made donuts by Dolce Donuts (made on site). In the crowd of hundreds were Amy Corton, Elaine and Peter Chortek, Claire and David Ellman, Pauline Foster, Deborah Horwitz and Paul Nierman, Miriam and Jerome Katzin, Robert Lazarus, Felicia and David Mandelbaum, Shearn and Linda Platt, Elene and Herb Solomon, Elaine and Murray Gallinson (committee chairs), Dan Weinberg, Alan Ziter, Marie Sorokin and Marjory Kaplan, CEO.