

an excerpt from the book of life

Jerome and Leona Levy

*T*hroughout its long and distinguished history, our synagogue has served as a gathering place, a place to worship, to be inspired, to seek answers through study and to commit to a just and better world.

We have inherited the spiritual and social foundations created by preceding generations. Our legacy, indeed our responsibility, is to take what we know and pass it on to our children and grandchildren. Our philanthropy will serve as an enduring fount to support these endeavors.
