

TIKKUN OLAM CAMP

for Jewish Teens This Summer

- Give away thousands of dollars to the community
- Visit and evaluate nonprofits
- Prepare packages in a food pantry to feed the hungry
- Clean up local beaches
- Brighten the day of seniors

This is what Tikkun Olam Camp is all about – repairing the world!

This summer Youth Philanthropy at the Jewish Community Foundation will offer two sessions of Tikkun Olam Camp:

"The best part of the program was seeing people impacted first-hand, and the potential that our money could have to improve their lives."

"Many of the organizations are very worthy and need donations and volunteers. It was nice to be able to help in both ways."

June 23-27 for incoming 9th and 10th graders, and August 11-15 for incoming 11th and 12th graders.

Tikkun Olam Camp encourages students to become philanthropists by empowering them with skills to donate effectively and be active through volunteering.

Last year's campers gave the program high marks and especially enjoyed the hands-on nature of the activities. Through volunteer projects and site visits the students met nonprofit staff members and clients who were being served.

Tikkun Olam Camp is open to all students who will be in high school next fall. Registration is now open but space is limited, so apply soon. For more information about Tikkun Olam Camp and to apply, please visit www.jcfsandiego.org/tikkuncamp.htm or email youthphilanthropy@jcfsandiego.org.
