

JEWISH COMMUNITY FOUNDATION TO HOST PHILANTHROPY CAMP FOR JEWISH TEENS

SAVE THE DATE: JUNE 22-26, 2009

ARE YOU A HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT LOOKING FOR AN ENRICHING SUMMER EXPERIENCE THAT WILL CONNECT YOU TO OTHER JEWISH TEENS AND TEACH YOU TO BE A PHILANTHROPIST?

The Jewish Community Foundation will host its third annual Tikkun Olam Camp from June 22-26, 2009.

This one-week day camp for high school students provides unique opportunities to learn about needs in both the Jewish and general community while earning community service hours and building friendships.

Teens explore Jewish values related to giving, identify charitable priorities and interests, and conduct site visits to local Jewish and secular nonprofits to evaluate organizations' effectiveness. The students also participate in multiple community service activities and interact with community leaders.

Tikkun Olam Camp culminates with campers deliberating about which organizations and programs to fund through their grant pool. These dollars are contributed by camp participants and matched by Foundation donors.

"Each year, the students do an outstanding job of learning about the community and how to give. The Foundation always gains from their wisdom and enthusiasm," said Marjory Kaplan, CEO of the Jewish Community Foundation. "We wholeheartedly welcome students to this program, which teaches important community leadership skills for their future."

The Jewish Community Foundation partners with individuals, families and community organizations to help them achieve their philanthropic goals and to increase current and future support for a vibrant and secure Jewish community in San Diego, Israel and around the world.

Tikkun Olam Camp is open to students who will be in high school next fall. Registration is open and space is limited. Some scholarships are available.
