Excerpts from the Book of Life

Sydney and Cynthia Wexler

It is our hope that the chain of Jewish tradition will never be broken. We are grateful for having experienced this life together, for the blessings of family, and for the enrichment of life that Judaism has afforded us.

Lynne Elson

For me, Jewish continuity is of utmost importance. The synagogue, with its focus on so many aspects of Jewish life, with outreach, education for both children and adults, opportunities to worship and celebrate holidays and life events, ways to volunteer and become involved in doing mitzvot – is the primary instrument for preserving our Jewish heritage.
