TYPES OF FUNDS

How do they work?

Donor contributes cash, stock or other assets to fund

Donor may receive immediate tax benefit

Donor consults with Foundation staff on options such as...

DONOR ADVISED FUND

Donor can then recommend grants anytime to qualified nonprofits in the Jewish or general community – schools, hospitals, the arts, social services, and more in San Diego, the U.S. or Israel

- Allows donor to centralize giving from one source
- Can involve all family members
- May name children and grandchildren as successor advisors

ENDOWMENT FUND

Donor will collaborate with the Foundation to select qualified nonprofits in the Jewish or general community – schools, hospitals, the arts, social services, and more in San Diego, the U.S. or Israel

- Established for charitable organizations or fields of interest
- Fixed percentage of the fund distributed annually
- Established during lifetime or after

WAYS TO GET ENGAGED

Learning, Understanding, Growing

THE FOUNDATION ENGAGES ITS DONORS in meaningful and strategic philanthropy.

Our donor education series features current trends and prominent speakers.

The Foundation arranges site visits to organizations where donors see first-hand the programs they fund.

Volunteer committee participation provides donors with a deeper understanding about philanthropy and The Foundation's impact.

Including youth in multi-generational conversations promotes their commitment to giving.

From Our Donors:

"For us, the Jewish Community Foundation is the full package: a service, an education and a community."

"It doesn't matter what income level or stage of life you are in, the Foundation just makes it so easy to give back."

JEWISH WOMEN'S FOUNDATION

STRATEGY >

Improving the Lives of Jewish Women and Girls

Jewish Women's FOUNDATION OF SAN DIEGO

SINCE 2004, the Jewish Women's Foundation (JWF) has granted and leveraged more than $800,000 to address critical issues facing Jewish women and girls in San Diego.

JWF just launched a new grant initiative, partnering with Jewish Family Service and the Lawrence Family Jewish Community Center to provide a stronger network of care and attention for older Jewish women.

Current JWF Grantee Programs

- Jewish Family Service, Expanding existing services such as its Bikkur Holim Friendly Visitor Program, increase Sunday transportation, and lunch and entertainment at its College Avenue Center
- Lawrence Family Jewish Community Center, JACOBS FAMILY CAMPUS, Inviting participants to a variety of topics, clubs, Jewish holiday celebrations, and outings

PLANNING YOUR LEGACY

Ensuring Organizations Thrive for Generations to Come

YOUR LEGACY SECURES THE FUTURE OF OUR COMMUNITY

Your legacy gift of any size, to any organization, can be designed to match your personal circumstances.

WAYS TO LEAVE A LEGACY

- Bequest in will or trust
- Appreciated assets or cash
- Life insurance policy
- IRA or retirement plan
- Charitable remainder trust
- Charitable gift annuity

WAYS TO WORK WITH THE FOUNDATION

- Confidential conversations to create your legacy plan
- Coordination with your professional advisors
- Fully documented plan that can be revised at no cost

YOUTH PHILANTHROPY

STRATEGY >
Encourage Philanthropy among Younger Generations

Engaging Younger Generations

The Peter Chortek Leadership Award honors three extraordinary teens' community service and leadership each year. Peter z"l and Elaine Chortek created the award to foster Jewish communal involvement and encourage practicing tikkun olam, repairing the world.

The Foundation launched the Jewish Teen Foundation as part of an international initiative with the Jewish Teen Funders Network Foundation Board Incubator, funded by Laura Lauder and the Maimonides Fund. San Diego Jewish high school teens learn about nonprofits and charitable giving, and making an impact in their community during this academic year-long program.

ENDOWMENT LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE (ELI)

Providing Jewish Organizations with Legacy Planning Resources

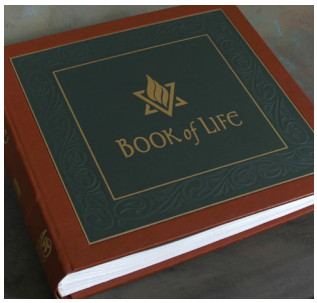
Create a Jewish Legacy©

ELI BRINGS TOGETHER Jewish organizations, synagogues and day schools with the common goal of establishing endowments for the long-term vitality of the San Diego Jewish community. It has built a community culture of legacy giving in San Diego. To date, over 1,000 families have established legacies with hundreds of millions of dollars in planned gifts.

From ELI Organizations:

"Because of ELI, our synagogue now has a good start with an endowment. We have $2 million at the Jewish Community Foundation and many more planned gifts from our congregants."

"ELI opened up a whole new world of possibilities. It's an extraordinary program. A collective power comes from being with other organizations. ELI makes a huge difference in our community."



Donors may sign the Book of Life upon promising a legacy gift of any size to the Jewish community.

Look for us in the San Diego Jewish Journal and other publications.

COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS

Building Partnerships with Philanthropic Organizations

Through membership in the international Jewish Funders Network, the Foundation works to maximize the quality and impact of Jewish philanthropy.

www.jfunders.org

Foundation staff serve on the board and committees of San Diego Grantmakers, a convener and resource for organized philanthropy. We also lead professional development sessions, engage in funder collaboratives and take an active role in the annual conference.

www.sdgrantmakers.org

The Foundation is one of sponsors of the University of San Diego Nonprofit Governance Symposium, a gathering of nonprofit and philanthropy board members and professionals pursuing strong governance through board development, ethics and best practices.

www.sandiego.edu

The Foundation supports the leadership development of philanthropy professionals, including membership in the San Diego Chapter of Emerging Practitioners in Philanthropy and partnership with the Association of Fundraising Professionals.

RESOURCES AVAILABLE

STRATEGY >
Build Infrastructure to Ensure Trust for the Long-Term

Meeting Spaces for Philanthropy Discussions

The Tuttleman Family Philanthropy Room is a state-of-the-art meeting venue. The space offers resources and an ideal environment for donors to engage in confidential discussions about their charitable giving, legacy and estate planning and family philanthropy.

The Foundation established the Littman Legacy Room, a meeting space in honor of Gail Littman, of blessed memory. In addition to providing an intimate venue for discussing charitable giving, the room houses resources on legacy planning for donors and nonprofits.

STRATEGY >
Build Infrastructure to Ensure Trust for the Long-Term

INFRASTRUCTURE AND GOVERNANCE

Fostering Trust and Securing the Future

THE FOUNDATION adheres to the highest standards of governance with a strong commitment to transparency and accountability.

- The board of directors is comprised of highly qualified community leaders from diverse fields of expertise. All board members are required to serve on a committee before being considered for a board appointment.
- The Foundation's active committees address key areas: Audit, Board Advancement, Endowments and Grants, Endowment Leadership Institute, Executive, Finance and Systems, Human Resources, Investment, Philanthropy, Professional Advisors, and Real Estate & Gift Acceptance.
- AKT, an independent public accounting firm, audits the Foundation's financial statements annually. AKT has consistently rendered an unqualified opinion. The audited statements are available on our website.
- The Foundation focuses on efficiency, keeping operating expenses low.
- The Investment Committee administers investment policy with the guidance of the Foundation's consultant, Slocum. Based in Minneapolis, Slocum provides independent investment advice to over 100 institutions in the U.S. and Canada.
- The Foundation has established policies to reflect best practices in the field, addressing confidentiality, ethics, whistleblowing and conflicts of interest.

WAYS TO THINK ABOUT YOUR PHILANTHROPY

Why are you giving?

What do you want to accomplish?

How will you involve others?

What do you wish for future generations?

Your thoughts?

Jewish Community Foundation
San Diego

ESTABLISHED IN 1967, the Jewish Community Foundation is the oldest community foundation in San Diego.

Our mission is to promote philanthropy through meaningful partnerships with donors and community organizations in achieving charitable goals; to increase current and future support for a vibrant and secure Jewish and general community in San Diego, Israel and around the world.
